In the name of academic freedom and in solidarity with the Ukrainian people, Tel Aviv University (TAU) established an emergency fund to support research students from Ukraine. TAU is offering to host up to 20 research students from Ukrainian universities in all disciplines for a full semester at TAU. During their stay at TAU, scholarship recipients will have the opportunity to further their research through collaboration with TAU's leading scholars and scientists.

Program Outline

1. The program is intended for Postdoctoral students, PhD students, and research-track MAMSc students currently enrolled in a university in Ukraine in any discipline.
2. Students must be Ukrainian citizens to apply.
3. Students must be able to communicate effectively in English.
4. Scholarship recipients will be invited to come to TAU soon after notification of acceptance and to remain for up to six months.
5. The university will match each scholarship recipient with a TAU faculty member who will serve as the student's mentor while at TAU.
6. The scholarship will cover full tuition and a stipend.

Application

Please email the following material to Ms. Michal Linder at TAU International - Intlprojects@tauex.tau.ac.il

1. 1-page (up to 500 words) statement describing research.
2. Letter of recommendation from advisor.
3. Document showing active status at home university in Ukraine.

Deadline

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis effective immediately and until further notice.

2. Feinberg Graduate School at the Weizmann Institute of Science – Supported visiting students and postdocs program for Ukrainians

Институт Вайцмана принимает студентов последних курсов института-магистратуры, аспирантуры и научных сотрудников разных дисциплин из Украины. Программа рассчитана максимум на полгода, есть жилье, помощь с билетами и стипендия. Необходимо предоставить резюме, форму (смотреть по ссылке), оценки и копию паспорта. С вопросами можно обращаться к координаторам по дисциплинам (указано по ссылке) на английском языке, или к Яне (+972545680153, ватсап) на русском. Студентами с неполными заявлениями (например, не имеющим возможности предоставить выписку с оценками), стоит тоже подать документы на рассмотрение.

The Feinberg Graduate School at the Weizmann Institute of Science invites advanced undergraduate, graduate students, and postdoctoral researchers to apply to our supported Visiting Students Program. The program welcomes students from Life Sciences, Mathematics & Computer Science, Chemistry, Physics, and Science Teaching to apply. Visitors will be hosted at one of our labs and will get monthly support of 5000 NIS for up to six months + accommodations + airfare.

Please contact our program coordinators given below to apply or obtain more information. The application material should include, if possible:

- CV: Your CV should include information about prior experience with experimental or theoretical research, where relevant.
- Copy of your passport (i.e., copy of the page that displays your details and photo).
- Transcript (with your university's logo): You should submit an official transcript signed by the appropriate authority at your university.
- Up to one page of a personal note about yourself and your academic aspirations and scientific interests.
- Please complete the table below

We understand that you might not solicit all the above material, so we would consider your application even if you have only part of the above material. We plan to do everything that we can to expedite the acceptance procedure. Once the application has been processed, our board of study for each discipline would assist you in finding a host faculty (PI) closely related to your field of research or interest.

The list of coordinators appear on the website. Alternatively, you can also write directly to the Head of our International Office, Aileen Halbershtat aileen.halbershtat@weizmann.ac.il, for further assistance.

3. Ukraine Emergency Fellowship at U of Haifa, preference for female scholar with children in Humanities, Social Science, or Law

Ukraine Emergency Fellowship at the Haifa Center for German and European Studies of the University of Haifa

We are offering one one-year fellowship in residence at the Haifa Center for German and European Studies for one scientist from Ukraine with a background in the Humanities, social sciences or law (with a doctorate). The fellowship holder should work on aspects of modern European history and have a conversational command of English. We will be flexible concerning the scope and area of studies (Europe in its wider dimensions). Preference will be given to female scientists who had to flee the country with their children.

Starting date: as soon as possible

The fellowship will include the flight as well as a stipend of 30.000 US dollars for the year. The fellowship is paid by funds of the German Academic Exchange Service – the DAAD – and the personal funds of the head of the center. We hope that others around the world will follow our example and give these people in need a home from where they can regroup in dignity, continue their careers, and can continue to be part of the academic and social leadership of Ukraine, if only from a safe distance.

If you are interested and think you might meet the criteria, please contact us at hcg@univ.haifa.ac.il.

* This fellowship does not confer refugee status! We will have to obtain a regular visa for post-doctoral fellows.

Hebrew University Emergency Aid for Researchers and Students from the Ukraine

Considering the threat on the lives or academics in the Ukraine, and in a show of solidarity, the Hebrew University is offering academic hosting for Ukrainian academic staff and students of higher degrees.

Ukrainian academic faculty members, residents of the Ukraine, who serve in academic institutions in the Ukraine, are invited to continue their research activity within the framework of the Hebrew University (HUJI). The invitation is to stay at the University for a period of up to four months, during which time the University will provide scholarships for suitable guests in the amount of between $2,500/month for individuals and $2,800/month for families, as well as free accommodation in the University's dormitories for the four-month period. Guests who require a lab to conduct their research will be hosted in the labs of HUJI researchers, in coordination with the Head of the Lab. The Head of the Lab is encouraged to provide a scholarship from his/her research budget, however, hosting is not dependent on providing funding for the guest.

Master and PhD Students, residents of the Ukraine, who are studying in academic institutions in the Ukraine, are invited to continue their academic research at HUJI. The invitation is to stay at the University for a period of up to four months during which time we will offer suitable candidates scholarships in the amount of $2,000/month and free accommodation in the University dormitories during the four-month period. Guest students who require a lab to conduct their research will be hosted by HUJI researchers in coordination with the Head of the Lab. The Head of the Lab can provide a scholarship from his/her research budget, however, hosting is not dependent on providing funding for the guest.

Ukrainian undergraduate students are also invited to attend courses at the HUJI Rothberg School for International Students, and scholarships and accommodations will be offered to suitable candidates.

To submit your nomination to this program, please send your CV and a short cover letter in English with a description of your field of research and contact information to the International Office, Ms. Ayala Feinmesser-Mizrahi, Program Coordinator, International Office, email: ayalafm@savion.huji.ac.il. For more information or queries, please contact Ms. Jane Turner, Head of International Office, email: janet@savion.huji.ac.il.

Sincerely,

Prof. Barak Medina, Rector
